

Folklore Society Evening

Weds 8th July 2009 6.30 - 9.00 pm

The Songs and the Singer

An evening dedicated to Traditional Song. Jonathan Roper will introduce a screening of his short film 'The Crocodile, the Cobbler and Bob' about Bob Lewis, a traditional singer from Sussex. Followed by an open discussion with Bob, convened by Paul Cowdell, about some of the topics of the film: learning songs, traditionality, song ownership and what exactly a 'folk song' might be (and whether that matters). Additional footage will be shown from Doc Rowe which will include some of Bob Lewis's mentors such as Bob Copper and Gordon Hall... there will also be, no doubt, some singing. This will be followed by a reception ... and probably more music!

Warburg Institute, Woburn Square
London WC1H 0AB

£10 in advance -to include refreshments
[£8 concession]; £15 [£10] on the door.
For details contact via our website

www.folklore-society.com or The Folklore Society Office on 0207 862 8564

cut off ----- cut off

Please send ___ full tickets ___ concessionary tickets for The Songs and the Singer Members' Evening on 8th July 2009

I enclose cheque for £ _____ made payable to The Folklore Society

Name: _____ address: _____

EMAIL: _____

The Folklore Society, Warburg Institute, Woburn Square, London WC1H 0AB